

Expanding

Promoting a Team-based Approach

All members of the team can contribute to learning in practice.

- Give examples of team members in your area that contribute to learning?
- Do all these members understand their role in supporting learning?
- What preparation and/or resources are available to help the wider team understand how they can contribute to the learning of others?
- How might members of the team contribute to assessment?