

4) Match the condition to the symptoms:

Chlamydia	No symptoms, may not know if have it or not
Human Papillomavirus	Small blisters, open sores around genitals, anus, thighs or bottom, tingling, burning or itching around genitals, pain when urinating, in women – vaginal discharge
Gonorrhoea	Small painless sores or ulcers, blotchy red rash, small skin growths, white patches in mouth, tiredness, headaches, joint pains, fever and swollen glands
Syphilis	Thick green or yellow discharge from vagina or penis, pain when urinating, in women – bleeding between periods
Genital Herpes	Flu-like illness 2-6 weeks after infection which lasts 1-2 weeks once these symptoms disappear may not cause any more symptoms for years although it will continue to damage your immune system
HIV / AIDS	Pain when urinating, unusual discharge, women – tummy pain, bleeding after sex and between periods, in men – pain and swelling in testicles