

Connecting

Orientation Packs

Orientation packs help learners understand the area and types of patients/service users.

- What type of information do you provide for learners?
- Identify 3 sources of information / guidance that should be included in an orientation pack?
- What type of information should you include about learning and assessment in your area? (consider the requirements of standards set by professional and regulatory bodies)